

Butterfield trust executive, Jane Pearce, named in 50 Most Influential

Jan 24 2022

For the fourth consecutive year, Butterfield's Group Head of Trust, Jane Pearce, has been included in eprivateclient's prestigious 50 Most Influential 2022 list.

The eprivateclient 50 Most Influential initiative is designed to identify, recognise and promote the leading advisers that provide private wealth advice to clients globally. The highlighted individuals are selected by PAM Insight's judges after an open call for nominations, who then consider their professional strengths and market knowledge.

Jane joined the multi-jurisdictional, award-winning Butterfield Trust team in February 2020 and is leading its efforts to expand its presence in the international market, as well as the ongoing development of its core product and service capabilities.

Jane said: "It is an honour to be recognised as one of the eprivateclient 50 most. Not only is this accolade for me personally, it is also a testament to the strength of the global Butterfield Trust team as we continued to deliver exceptional service, supporting the needs of our clients around the world."
