

Butterfield Awarded Bank of the year for Bermuda

Dec 11 2024

Hamilton, Bermuda – 11 December 2024: Butterfield has retained the Bank of the Year award for Bermuda as announced by The Banker, an international financial affairs publication owned by the Financial Times.

The Banker's Bank of the Year Awards aim to recognise lenders that have grown while retaining a solid balance sheet, improved the quality of their service, invested in technology and considered their role within their local communities.

Jody Feldman, Butterfield's Managing Director of Bermuda, said, "We are pleased that Butterfield has been recognised as Bank of the Year for Bermuda once again, an accolade we are proud to have been granted for 12 years running. This year, the award highlighted Butterfield's efforts as the first card issuer to introduce Google Pay and the only lender to have enacted a full merchant acquiring agreement with American Express Global Network Services. These achievements are made possible due to the hard work of the entire team, and I thank all of our employees and our clients for their continued loyalty."

Earlier this year, Butterfield was also named Bermuda's Best Private Bank by The Banker/PWM and Global Finance magazine.
