Butterfield Welcomes Justin Hastings To Tournament And Celebrates Sponsorship

Nov 13 2025

George Town, Cayman Islands—13 November 2025: Butterfield has welcomed Caymanian golfer Justin Hastings to the 2025 Butterfield Bermuda Championship and is pleased to confirm a new three-year sponsorship agreement to support his professional career on the PGA TOUR Americas having earned his spot earlier this year.

Prior to the start of his professional career, Hastings was crowned Low Amateur at the 2025 U.S. Open Championship at Oakmont, making him the first Caymanian golfer to both compete and make the cut in a U.S. Open. At the age of 14, he became the youngest player ever to win the Cayman Islands Men's National Championship and has represented the Cayman Islands in major international competitions, including the Latin America Amateur Championship and the World Amateur Team Championships.

Speaking at the pre-tournament events Justin Hastings said: "I am very excited about the launch of my partnership with the Butterfield team. It's an honour to be aligned with such a well-renowned brand in the Cayman Islands. I'm looking forward to competing in the Butterfield Bermuda Championship this week and to growing as a player in the years ahead with the support of Butterfield to help me reach my goals."

Michael McWatt, Butterfield's Managing Director, Cayman, said: "Following on from offering Justin a sponsor exemption to compete in this year's Butterfield Bermuda Championship, he since turned pro and our new sponsorship agreement is a natural development. Justin is a fantastic young Caymanian athlete with a bright future and we are delighted to be able to support his continued career progression on a global stage. We wish him all the best in the tournament and look forward to working with him over the next three years."
