SECTION G – ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS AND ELECTRONIC SIGNATURE AUTHORISATION

The capitalised terms used below (together referred to as this “Electronic Authorisation Form”) sets out the terms on which:

- the Bank and the Customer may communicate by Electronic Means;
- the Customer may give Instructions to the Bank by Electronic Means, and
- the Bank and the Customer may enter into Banking Documents by Electronic Means.

By signing this Application Form, the customer:

1. authorises the Bank to communicate with the Customer by Electronic Means;
2. authorises the Bank to accept the Signing of any Banking Document by the Customer using an E-Signature;
3. agrees and accepts that the Signing of a Banking Document by the Customer using an E-Signature and the submission of that Signed Banking Document to the Bank by the Customer by Electronic Means shall be conclusive evidence of:
 - (i) the Customer’s acceptance of that Banking Document; and
 - (ii) the Customer’s intention to be legally bound by that Banking Document (in its entirety) to the same extent, and with the same legal force and effect, as if the Customer had validly Signed that Banking Document with one or more handwritten (“wet ink”) signatures.
4. authorises the Bank to accept and rely on all or any Banking Documents submitted to the Bank by the Customer by Electronic Means;
5. authorises the Bank to accept and act upon any Instructions sent to the Bank by the Customer using Electronic Means; and
6. agrees that the Customer shall promptly indemnify the Bank and hold the Bank harmless from any damage or losses (including economic and consequential losses but excluding any losses resulting from the fraud or wilful neglect by the Bank) which the Bank may suffer or incur as a result of:
 - (i) acting on Instructions given or submitted to the Bank by Electronic Means where the Bank believes that the Instructions were sent to the Bank by the Customer;
 - (ii) entering into a Banking Document with the Customer which the Bank believes was sent to the Bank by the Customer by Electronic Means; and/or
 - (iii) relying on a Banking Document received by Electronic Means and which the Bank believes has been Signed by the Customer using an E-Signature.

Customer acknowledgements and warranties

The Customer acknowledges and agrees that:

1. the Bank shall be under no duty to verify or authenticate any Instructions which the Bank reasonably believes were sent to the Bank by or behalf of the Customer by Electronic Means;
2. the Bank shall incur no liability for, and the Customer hereby releases the Bank from, any liability for any loss, damage, costs and expenses which the Customer may suffer or incur (including any consequential loss) by or as a result of the Bank relying and/or acting on any Banking Documents it receives from the Customer by Electronic Means which the Bank reasonably believes were Signed by the Customer using an E-Signature unless the loss, damage, costs and expenses were caused by fraud or wilful misconduct on the part of the Bank;
3. the Bank may refuse to carry out any Instructions received by the Bank from the Customer by Electronic Means if the Bank considers the Instructions to be:
 - (i) ambiguous, suspicious, unclear, or impossible to effect;
 - (ii) unlawful;
 - (iii) would exceed any applicable limit;
 - (iv) would exceed any available funds; and/or
 - (v) would or may, in the opinion of the Bank, breach the Customer’s mandate or any other agreement between the Customer and the Bank; and

4. a Banking Document submitted to the Bank by the Customer by Electronic Means will not be legally binding on the Bank unless and until it is Signed by the Bank and dated. The Bank will notify the Customer by Electronic Means as soon as practicable when it has Signed and dated a Banking Document sent to it by the Customer.

The Customer agrees that the Bank shall not be liable to the Customer for any loss, damage, costs and/or expenses which the Customer may suffer or incur (including any consequential loss) howsoever caused by any delay or failure or refusal by the Bank to act on any Instructions sent to the Bank by Electronic Means where the Bank considers or believes that the Instructions may exceed the Authority of the Customer, may not be authentic or where the Bank in its sole discretion takes steps to verify the authenticity of any Instructions received by Electronic Means.

Notwithstanding the above, Customer acknowledges that the Bank may in its sole and absolute discretion decline to Sign or otherwise enter into a Banking Document by Electronic Means, may decline to accept a Banking Document Signed using an E-Signature and may decline to accept any Instructions sent to it by Electronic Means.

The Customer agrees that this Electronic Authorisation Form shall remain in full force and shall be binding on the Customer until notice in writing of its termination is received and acknowledged by the Bank and that any such notice shall be without prejudice to the completion of transactions, the entry into of Banking Documents and the implementation of Instructions pursuant to this Electronic Authorisation Form prior to the receipt by the Bank of the termination notice.

Appendix – Definitions of terms used in This Electronic Communications and Electronic Signature Authorisation Form

“Customer” shall include all persons authorised to act on behalf of the Customer, any agent of the Customer and any attorney of the Customer, in each case as notified to the Bank by the Customer from time to time.

“Banking Document” means this Electronic Authorisation Form, any account opening agreement, any facility letter, guarantee, assignment, security agreement and/ or any other agreement, document, letter, form of instructions of any description (other than a Wet Ink Agreement) between the Bank and the Customer in connection with any bank account, or any financing arrangement, trust or agency services, or asset management services.

“E-Signature” includes a scanned signature, a digitally drawn manuscript signature, a digital signature produced cryptographically and inserted into the code of a document and any other signature by Electronic Means the Bank considers to be authentic and which constitutes the signature of the Customer.

“Electronic Means” includes e-mail, facsimile, telephone, computer and other similar electronic means of communication and/ or the use of E-Signatures.

“Instructions” means any form of instruction, authorisation, notification or request (to make a payment or otherwise) given to the Bank by the Customer or which purports to have been given to the Bank by the Customer or which the Bank reasonably believes has been given to the Bank by the Customer.

“Signing” means the signing, execution and delivery (as the case may be) of a Banking Document with the intention of being legally bound by that Banking Document when it is dated by the Bank and “Signed” shall be construed accordingly.

“Wet Ink Agreement” means any agreement, deed or other document between the Bank and the Customer that are signed by way of a handwritten signature or that are required to be signed or executed by way of a handwritten signature under applicable law, including but not limited to deeds, mortgages of real property and charges of real property.
